Weird Al Loves Wacky Al Jaffee

WRITER "WEIRD AL" YANKOVIC
ARTIST ED STECKLEY

As of this writing, the great Al Jaffee is still very much alive and well. (347 years old—amazing!) I'm a lifelong fan of Al's and have always been enormously entertained by his work in MAD, including the iconic "Snappy Answers to Stupid Questions" and of course the legendary Fold-Ins. I'm still picking up pieces of my brain off the floor after finding out that I was the subject of one of those Fold-Ins back in 2014.

But he's also responsible for my single most-favorite one-panel cartoon ever.

When I was growing up in Lynwood, California, Kenny Rokos lived directly across the street from me. I liked Kenny well enough, but what I really liked about going over to his house was the fact that his dad happened to have a big stack of MAD magazines in the closet. I was already a voracious MAD reader by this time, and this was a convenient way for me to get my fix.

I remember one day I was thumbing through a 1966 back issue and stumbled upon this three-page article by Mr. Jaffee. Honestly, I don't even remember what the article was about, but I'll never forget one of the images that it included: a very realistic-looking Dennis the Menace cartoon in which Dennis is running into the kitchen to proudly show his horrified mother a human skull. The caption: "LOOK WHAT I FOUND IN MR. WILSON'S HEAD!"

This completely short-circuited my brain. Without exaggeration, I may have laughed for 20 minutes straight. It was the funniest thing I had seen in my life up to that point—and frankly, I can't think of any other time in my life when I've laughed harder.

I mean, it's such a dark joke. It creates such an absurd and disturbing visual image: Was Dennis playfully clawing all the flesh off of Mr. Wilson's head until he found this lovely treasure? And now how is Mom supposed to react to this act of depravity? This one cartoon may be the sole reason why so many of the songs in my catalog are twisted and violent. And the attention to detail is magnificent—it's virtually identical to Hank Ketcham's comic art. I probably learned that important lesson about the craft of parody from this cartoon as well.

A few years ago I heard that beloved longtime Simpsons writer George Meyer deemed this cartoon his all-time favorite as well. For an obscure little drawing hidden away in a three-page article in a magazine that's over half a century old, I think that's really saying something.

Anyway, thank you, Al Jaffee, for the many, many, many laughs over the years. And here's to 347 more!

ARTIST BASIL WOLVERTON

THE STUDENT MAD READER (WITH TEACHER). HERE IS THE INTELLECTUAL COLLEGE YOUTH... THIS FELLOW WAS A MUSICAL SCHERZO, AN AVERAGE STUDENT... WELL VERSED IN THE CLASSICS WITH A SUCCESSFUL CAREER AHEAD. HE'S A LITTLE STUPID, A LITTLE STUPID, A LITTLE STUPID... AND A LITTLE STUPID. HE'S A STUPID STUDENT; TODAY THIS STUDENT IS AN EMPTY DRINKING SCOT... BUT, RECENTLY, A HAPPY EMPTY DRINKING SCOT.

THE ELDERS MAD READER! MAD IS NO longer confined to the younger set! HERE IS AN ELDERLY MAN WHO, BEFORE READING MAD, WAS CONFINED TO A WHEEL CHAIR, COMMITTED TO A STRICT DIET OF SHEERED MEAT... AND CONFINED TO CONVERSATION WITH HIS BROTHER. NOW HE IS NO LONGER CONFINED TO A CHAIR, HE CAN EAT ANYTHING HE LIKES... AND NO LONGER CONFINED TO THE CONFINED MEAT... AND IS NO LONGER CONFINED TO THE CONFINED WATER... HE IS FREEEE... CONFINED?

THE FEMALE MAD READER... THIS YOUNG LADY HAD DYSMORPHIC HANDS... PROSPERATION COULD FROM ALL "I, A REVERSE CASE OF ACNE, AND BOY-FRIENDS NEVER COME TO CALL ON ME"; THEN SHE BOUGHT AN ANTACID... SHE'S STILL PISSED OFF, BUT SHE'S NOT AS ANGRY AS SHE WAS. SHE'S NOT AS ANGRY AS SHE WAS.

THE CRITICAL MAD READER... FINALLY THERE ARE THOSE WHO KREP AND DO NOT LIVE MAD AND SO... IN ALL HONESTY WITH A FIRM BELIEF THAT EVERY ARGUMENT HAS TWO SIDES... IT IS A SPIRIT OF FREE PLAY AND FRIENDSHIP WHICH IS THE ESSENCE OF MAD. SO, IF YOU ARE ONE OF THOSE WHO KREP AND DO NOT LIVE MAD, THIS IS FOR YOU WHO, AFTER ALLEGING THE ABOVE, IMMINENTLY AND PAY AND LAUGH FROM PER-YOUR-老子-GOD, THEY FEEL AWAY AGAIN!

ON THIS AND THE FOLLOWING PAGE ARE VIEWS OF WHAT WE, THE EDITORS OF MAD, BELIEVE TO BE A CROSS-SECTION OF THE PEOPLE WHO READ MAD!... AND SO, WHILE YOU WANDER THROUGH THE FOLLOWING PAGE, SMIRKING, GUFFAWING AND RETCHING AT WHAT YOU SEE... PAUSE A MOMENT! THE FACE YOU'RE RETCHING AT MAY BE YOUR OWN!

In this uncensored world, where anything goes (including the censor), people can read lots of dirty words in books and magazines. Or hear even worse in the movies. And so, in line with this "let-it-all-hang-out" trend, MAD hereby presents the dirtiest word in the English language. Ready?

pollution

Yep, that's it. Not only is it the dirtiest word in the English language, but the deadliest! Ask any tuna fish lover. For months now, the nation's pundits have been permeating the press with their plaintive prattlings about pollution. Well, it's still a lot of garbage to us. So we've wrapped it all up in this 100% smog free, non-disposable . . .

WRITER BY REIT ARTIST ANGELO TORRES

Chapter 1.

See wretched Lester.
See how sick and shaky he looks.
Wretched Lester is trying to kick a nasty habit.
He is trying to quit something that is ruining his health.
And giving him terrible coughing spells.
And gradually turning his lungs black.
Lester knows that if he doesn't quit soon, he may die.
But he is having a rough time.
By comparison, giving up high-cholesterol foods was easy.
And giving up drinking was easy.
And giving up smoking was easy.
But how many people can successfully give up breathing?

See Phyllis and Ralph.
Phyllis and Ralph are fearless explorers.
See them packing for their next trip.
They are packing with care because it is a very dangerous trip.
See them pack their water purifying pills.
See them pack their oxygen masks.
See them pack their decontamination suits.
See them pack their food radiation detectors.
Pack everything you'll need, Phyllis and Ralph!
Everything, everything, everything.

You can't be too careful when you're planning a vacation in a big, modern American city!

Chapter 2.

Chapter 3.

See the fascinating X-ray.

It is an X-ray of Harold Fleeber's lungs.
Harold is a typical American citizen.
Living in a typical American community.
See how black and polluted his lungs are.
This is one case where black isn't beautiful.
How did Harold's lungs get into such bad shape?
Is he a stoker on a cargo ship?
No!
Does he work deep down in a dark coal mine?
No, no!
Has he been smoking three packs a day for 20 years?
No, no, no!
To tell the truth, Harold hasn't really done much of anything.
How much can an eight-month-old baby do?

Chapter 5.

See the Committee of Distinguished Citizens.
These Distinguished Citizens feel that there is much too much fuss and bother about pollution.

Fuss, fuss, fuss.
Bother, bother, bother.
They feel that people are needlessly panicky.
They feel that everyone should calm down.
They do NOT feel that the problem is as bad or as serious as everyone says it is.
Who are these fine, upstanding, calm Distinguished Citizens?
Harry, there, is an oil company tycoon . . . and Milton owns a paper mill . . . and Robert is a jet fuel manufacturer . . . and Winthrop is an electric utility executive . . . and Herman is the director of a chain of funeral parlors.

See poor Irving.
Poor Irving is getting smashed again.
Guzzle, guzzle, guzzle.

Poor Irving is fast becoming an alcoholic.
But it isn't really Irving's fault.
When Irving is thirsty, all he wants is a nice glass of water.
But whenever he turns on the tap, what does he get?
A glass full of soap suds.
Yes, poor Irving's water supply is loaded with detergents.
So he is forced to guzzle booze instead.
Barf, barf, barf.
Looks like there's more than one way to get polluted!

Chapter 6.

See the funky little magazine.
It is a brave and fearless publication.
To this funky little magazine, nothing is sacred.
Nothing, nothing, nothing.
It will take on Madison Avenue.
It will take on Hollywood.
It will take on Big Business, and Congress, and the Pentagon.
It will take on the problem of pollution.
And zap those who are responsible.
Speaking of pollution, you are now holding 48 pages
Of the worst kind imaginable.
Right in your hot little hands:
Mind pollution!

WRITER & ARTIST ANTONIO PROHIAS

Attention, all you schlock publishers who have never had an original idea in your lives! With MAD's circulation now over the one million mark, now is the time to hop on the old gravy train! So take Abe Lincoln's advice: "You can fool some of the people some of the time . . ." and try to fool them! Put out an imitation of MAD! Cash in on MAD's six years of hard work building a reputation in the humor and satire field! To help you, so you won't have to do any thinking, and thereby upset the usual pattern of your careers, take your mind off your secretary and study this special article which mainly tells you . . .

WRITER HARVEY KURTZMAN ARTISTS WILL ELDER & JACK DAVIS

TITLE

First, you'll need a name for your imitation. It should be a short name that sounds funny and looks funny. It should give the idea that you're putting out an easy-off-the-shelf satire, the azino. Like, for instance, the name "MAD." Only, don't use "MAD" because we can sue the pants off you! To help you pick a name that's close to or means "MAD," here is a section from our copy of Roget's Thesaurus. You probably don't have a copy, so we've saved you the expense of going out and buying one. Note all the wonderful synonyms for "MAD" you can choose from.

503. Mad

(See 502. Sanity, also 842. Wit)

1. adj. mad, senseless, crazy, cracked, stupid, nits, idiotic, frenzy, loco, batty, goofy, humbug [Briction], wacky, think, [coll.], dafty, loony, panic [dial.], screwy, psychopathic, trump [arch.], wild, life, look, colliers etc. (mentally deficient)

COVER

Second, design a cover for your imitation that looks like MAD. Here is an old trick that's been around since forever. Note the confusion! Note that our covers don't even look like this anymore! But then, you can't tell what we'll do next, so stick to the good old tried and proven formula!

TRADE MARK

It is important in imitating MAD that you adopt a mascot or trademark to represent the theme of your magazine. Like we use Alfred E. Neuman, the "What—Me Worry?" kid (below). You could use like a plasterer, or a cat that drinks whiskey, or a guy who swallows his nose, or a crutch...you know, really funny things like that.

HOW TO PUT OUT AN IMITATION OF

INDEX PAGE

Next, design an index page. On second thought, don't design an index page. Copy MAD's Index page exactly. After all, you're trying to fool people. This might give them the impression that your imitation is another magazine put out by the same gang that puts out MAD. This might give them the impression that we have no trouble at all just putting out MAD and keeping its quality high. This might give them the impression that we're greedy and mercenary. This might give them the impression we're like you!

Put name you have picked here. If possible, copy lettering style. Don't forget! You're desperate!

Put in a funny quote here. Remember, you're trying to imitate MAD. If MAD has a quote, you have a quote!

Include an impressive list of your staff here. If your staff isn't very impressive, make up list of phony names!

Since MAD has departments, make sure you place each of your articles in a different department . . . and don't let on that they all belong in one department: sanitation!

Don't make the mistake we make in giving our readers their money's worth. 48 pages costs lots more than say 40 pages or 32 pages. Shoot for them big profits.

A satire on "Believe It Or Not" is a must, as they are very popular . . . especially when they look like the ones Ernie Kovacs writes for us

Be sure to include a letter page. We know this is rough with you, but if you can, you can always write the letters yourself. Anyway, you'll need practice for the second issue. Mention MAD at least three times.

Copy this notice exactly. Especially that bit about "satiric purpose." Which in your case is a coincidence!

SO THERE YOU ARE! NOW GET RIGHT TO WORK . . . AND GOOD LUCK!
YOU'LL NEED IT! MAD READERS ARE SMARTER THAN YOU THINK!

These are very important steps. If I do say so myself, but they're

ONE FINE DAY ON MAIN STREET

WRITER & ARTIST AL JAFFEE

ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED IN MAD #402, FEB 2001

Think of "The Batman" as a mood piece. A gloomy mood piece. A long, long gloomy mood piece. And did we mention that it's raining for almost half the movie? That's three hours of a slow, moody, moist, rainy mood piece. If you sit through it all the way to the end, you'll have the same reaction that everybody has:

"Man, I really gotta go to..."

Ah, beautiful
Gotham City! Grayer than the inside of a bus depot ashtray!

I was born in this city,
and I'll die in this city.
Probably in the next five minutes!

I'm Thatwoman. Also the only woman it wasn't for me, this prick flick would be even more of a mushy sausage fest of sadness than it already is. "Saving Private Ryan" invading "The Social Network" would be more welcoming to women's roles! Too bad I don't have multiple personalities. If I could talk to myself, then this movie would pass the Bechdel Test!

That's an unfair attack I keep intense diaries, it's all about my hair, I mumble all the time, I sneak out nights, and I wear WAY too much eye makeup. They'll never guess my true secret identity... because I'm a 15-year-old girl!

To get the true flavor of how I communicate throughout this adventure, I'm going to speak the rest of this balloon using my movie voice.

No, it's not your hearing, it's just me.

All of you out there know that Batman is millionaire playboy Bruised Whine. In this one, he's millionaire sadboi! Other than dusting the stalactites, my job is worrying about his mental health. I told him he should buy some Xanax. He contemplated a $72 billion leveraged takeover of Pfizer.

WHITE: MERRISON DIAZIN ARTIST: TOM RICHMOND

Carmine Snowcone, head of the Five Families. Eight, maybe nine families, if you count my illegitimate children!

The only things I haven't stolen outright are "Taxi Driver" and "Se7en." This move stole them first. Nevertheless,

I take $400 million a year, and I don't pay rent to do it. I get a huge break by declaring the entire police force as dependent.

I'm proud to say that we're the only major U.S. city with no racial problems. That's because it's our job to distract anyone's race. I hate Batman. I hate the way he beats up suspects whenever he feels like it and violates their civil rights! That's our job!

I hate Batman. I hate the way he beats up suspects whenever he feels like it and violates anyone's race! That's our job!

This guy's superhero movie is wettter than mine!

Not Yet Commissioner Jim Gorgonzola, and these are some of my actual lines of dialogue. "Does this mean anything to you?" and "What are you saying?" and "How do you know?" and "What the hell does that mean?" Some cops deliver justice, I provide set-up filler! The rest of the department won't allow a Bat-Signal to go on their roof. But I'm getting used to schlepping it around

If elected Mayor, I promise to lower the cost of our city's annual electric bill, from 9 dollars to 6 dollars!

Some call me the Pelican. Others call me Oz. Not because I'm a lovable old wizard, but because I look like his hot air balloon! I AM the town's seedy underbelly! Every day, I blackmail officials, launder money, sell drugs, and traffic sex workers. I'm also the first Pelican who doesn't smoke! After all, kids are watching this and I don't want to set a bad example!

Why are these MAD introductions like a switchboard operator, a milkman, and a bowling pin setter? Answer: They're all ex-position! I'm the diabolical Didder, crusader against rampant corruption. The politicians, the cops, the lawyers, all of them need to get eaten alive inside one of my special rat traps. After that, we'll have to do something about the 10,000 overweight rats!

I want to play a game. And it's called "suing the Didder for blatant copyright infringement!"

CEASE AND DESIST

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31ST. VALENTINE'S DAY. I have become a nocturnal animal. Like a wombat. A hedgehog. Or a woolly lemur. Criminals have no greater fear than the woolly lemur. I am vengeance. I am the shadows. I am Groot. Fear is a tool, and so am I.

Every city bigwig in this underground club is a corrupt druggy pervert. The District Attorney. State Senators. And that's the Archibishop, snorting myrrh off a hooker's ass!

Making Thatwoman dress up like a floozy, jam high-tech spycams into her eyeballs, and risk her life secretly taping deviant horndogs is super creepy. But it's also my healthiest emotional relationship ever! Baby steps.

I've killed the Mayor and the Police Chief! The District Attorney will join his fellow rats, unless you solve my riddle!

Possums are mammals. Their tails are prehensile. Why are my crap rhymes Like a broken pencil? They're both pointless!

It's finally true! Some days, you just can't get rid of a bomb!

Got to chase the Pelican. Driving 90 miles per hour, against oncoming traffic on the wrong side of the highway! Horrible visibility! Causing collisions, fatalities, and tanker truck explosions. How else does a true hero prevent bad guys from hurting others?

What a crash! But I'm so fat, I protected the air bag! Wait, am I seeing things? Everything's topsy turvy!

That's because the damn cameraman's falling asleep, just like everyone else. We're an hour and a half into this movie, and the plot's moved two inches!

I could hire every investigator and forensic scientist in the world to solve my parents' murder, but I'd rather trust a 3-minute chat with a sociopathic mob boss.

The only billionaire without a comb! You must pay a stylist $5,000 a week to keep your hair that unkempt! Sorry, I can't remember who I killed back then. But I'm not such a bad guy, except for my intentions, my actions, and the terrible harm I've caused to so many.

Your skin's all burned and crispy. That reminds me, there's been no fried chicken back at the mansion since you chose to use your 3 annual vacation days.

Last thing I remember is opening the Diddler's firebomb letter. I didn't know anyone still used Hotmail!

I've gone from sad to very, very sad. It's the only evidence we have a relationship. Character development, what's that? You're Alfred, boom, done! We've only got 3 hours to work with, and every "slow blank stare" shot is golden!

SHIP HAPPENS DEPT.

In 1961, MAD founder and publisher Bill Gaines began taking the magazine's staff and freelance contributors on trips around the world. The first was to Haiti, but more extravagant trips followed, including ones to Africa, Bora Bora, and Japan. Many funny, classic moments occurred on these adventures (not an unexpected turn of events when you gather together "The Usual Gang of Idiots"). But one trip stands out not only for its many funny moments, but for perhaps the greatest practical joke ever pulled on Gaines.

HIJINKS ON THE HIGH SEAS!

A TRUE MAD TALE ABOARD A CRUISE TO BERMUDA

We set sail out of Brooklyn, New York, on the Celebrity Cruises ship Horizon.

The date was Saturday, September 7, 1991.

There were 24 MAD contributors plus some wives and significant others, for a total of 44.

Some people have likened this MAD cruise to the Titanic...

Others say it was much worse!

WRITER JOHN FICARRA ARTIST SAM VIVIANO

THE CRUISE GOT OFF TO AN AWKWARD START WHEN ARTIST RICK TULKA BEGAN AN IMPROMPTU TAP-DANCIN'G PERFORMANCE-- WHICH CAUSED THE CREW TO BEGIN AN IMPROMPTU DISCUSSION OF REINSTATING THE SHIP'S "WALK THE PLANK" POLICY.

PAUL COKER'S WIFE, ROSEMARY, BROUGHT ALONG BRIGHT RED FOAM CLOWN NOSES FOR EVERYONE TO WEAR. (THE MAD STAFF HAS ALWAYS BEEN KNOWN FOR ITS HIGH-BROW, SOPHISTICATED HUMOR.)

IT IS RUMORED THAT THE CAPTAIN TOOK ONE LOOK AT GAINES AND ART DIRECTOR LENNY BRENNER BOARDING THE SHIP AND IMMEDIATELY ORDERED THE CHEF TO DOUBLE THE AMOUNT OF FOOD PREPARED FOR THE EVENING BUFFETS.

IT WAS EARLY ON IN THE CRUISE THAT WRITER DICK DEBARTOLO CAME UP WITH TWO GREAT IDEAS. THE FIRST WAS TO DOUBLE HIS INTAKE OF SEASICKNESS MEDS. THE SECOND WAS A GREAT PRACTICAL JOKE TO PLAY ON GAINES.

DICK IMMEDIATELY BEGAN SHARING HIS IDEA WITH OTHER MAD STAFFERS...

Gaines is a huge Marx Brothers fan. Why don't we re-create the famous stateroom scene from A Night at the Opera in his cabin? Just like in the movie, we'll have MAD staffers arrive two at a time until his room is jam-packed with people?

I dunno. Seems like a lot of work!

I was planning on going to the pool that day.

Can't we talk about this at the buffet? I'm starving!

DEBARTOLO ALSO SOUGHT THE HELP OF THE SHIP'S CREW AND EVEN PERFECT STRANGERS FOR HIS PRANK.

...So we'll need someone from house-keeping with a running vacuum cleaner and another delivering a huge stack of towels, as many mechanics with tools as you can spare, and someone from the kitchen delivering three hard-boiled eggs.

It will probably cost me my job, but why not? What time would you like them to arrive?

ON THE APPOINTED DAY, THE MAD GROUP AND SHIP PERSONNEL GATHERED OUTSIDE GAINES' CABIN. DEBARTOLO DISPATCHED THEM, TWO AT A TIME, TO "DROP IN" ON GAINES. FIRST IN WERE ARTIST DUCK EDWING AND HIS WIFE, CLAIRE, (WHOM EDWING INSISTED ON CALLING "CLUCK").

Cheese 'n' crackers! We've come to see the large one.

EVERY THIRTY SECONDS OR SO, DEBARTOLO DISPATCHED MORE "GUESTS" TO DESCEND UPON GAINES' STATEROOM:

SERGIO AND CHARLENE ARAGONÉS...

Hola, Beel!

...AL AND JOYCE JAFFEE...

Good lord, I feel as if I'm entering a New York City subway during rush hour!

...SOME CREW MEMBERS FROM HOUSEKEEPING...

Here are the 42 sets of towels you ordered, Mr. Gaines.

A LONG LINE STRETCHED DOWN THE SHIP'S HALLWAY, THOUGH NOWHERE NEAR AS LONG AS THE PREVIOUS NIGHT'S LINE FOR THE SHIP'S ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT SHRIMP BUFFET.

KNOCK KNOCK!

INSIDE GAINES'S ROOM, JUST LIKE IN THE MARX BROTHERS MOVIE, BEDLAM ENSUED. THROUGH IT ALL, GAINES JUST SAT THERE IN HIS UNDERWEAR WILDLY AMUSED, CACKLING.

HA HA
HA HA
HA!

Room service!

I heard the iceman cometh, but this is ridiculous!

I don't know which is more frightening: the fact that I've lost all feeling in my leg or the sight of Gaines in his underwear!

If I don't survive this, I'd like to be buried at sea!

How about a rousing rendition of "F@#% You, Bill"?

I just thought of a great MAD article—"You Know You're About to be Crushed to Death When..."

Passports!

Who ordered the eggs?

I'm your biggest fan! Can I sit on your lap?

This makes me homesick for riding a New York City subway during rush hour!

Bill, would you like to tell us about the next trip?

LATER THAT NIGHT...

Dick, this is Bill. That was the best practical joke anyone ever played on me. Thanks, honey!

I'm glad you enjoyed it. Can I have a raise?

No!

THE GOOSE-FILLED COMFORTER CO.

This unique catalog features the latest in bed linens—100% cotton oversize comforters stuffed with LIVE geese! Much warmer than goose feathers alone! As long as the geese sleep, you will too! Kids love 'em—so do cats! Full selection of throw pillows stuffed with living crows also available. Catalog $18. Circle No. 826

VICTORIA'S REALLY REALLY SECRET

Lingerie, lacy nightgowns and other racy fashions too risqué for even Victoria to show! That's why every embarrassed model in this 112-page catalog is pictured hiding behind sofas, under box springs or inside clothing hamper! Special men's underwear section shows male models hiding in ditches and behind cactus. Catalog $32. Circle No. 245

TXUEDO IN A CAN

For over 13 years, America's foremost makers of vacuum-packed formal wear for that dress-up emergency! Store in your clothes closet or on your kitchen shelf next to the greenbeans! No refrigeration needed! Over two dozen styles and accessories, including freeze-dried cummerbunds. Long favored by backpackers and lighthouse keepers. Now in lead-free cans! Catalog $68. Circle No. 092

RIFOFFS 'R' US

Hard-to-find stolen goods at discount prices! Pages and pages of illegally obtained audio equipment, computers, fine jewelry, even cars! Odds are this burglar's den of merchandise was once YOUR merchandise, so you know they have the models and styles you're looking for! Fully illustrated catalog $16. Circle No. 738

SIR BENJAMIN'S MUSICAL PEGLEGS

Since 1895 the descendants of Sir Benjamin Bartholomew have painstakingly crafted by hand each of these charming, tuneful artificial limbs. They haven't sold a single one...so this catalog is filled with BIG discounts! This year's new musical selections include Forever Your Girl, The Theme From 'Cheers' and The Liverpool Oratorio. New conversion kit allows creation of musical fireplace logs. Color catalog $36. Circle No. 382

PET CLERGY SUPPLIES

PRAISE DOG! The St. Fido's catalog is the #1 source for multi-denominational pet accessories. They have it all: clerical flea collars, fe-line nun's habits, pulpits for fish, Bishop's miters in reptile sizes. Turn your pet's play time into pray time! Catalog $15. Circle No. 698

THE SHARPTON IMAGE

Complete accessories catalog for anyone wishing to emulate the controversial New York blowhard activist. Suits and jogging outfits in "extra Husky" sizes, moussed pompadour wigs, large, gag disco medallions, more! Full color catalog $34. Circle No. 485

FREDERICK'S OF SANDUSKY

Not to be confused with Frederick's of Hollywood! Fredericks of Sandusky will only sell fashions to men (and women) named Fred! There's absolutely no reason for this policy, it's just a peculiarity on the part of the owner, Bert Zacky. During January and February he will reluctantly sell to Teds and Eds, but only at 20% more than listed prices. Catalog $26. Circle No. 556

POTTERY MADE BY CHIMPANZEES

Monkeyware Ltd. has settled its differences with the Humane Society and is back! You'll go ape for this all-new collection of misshapen vases, warped salad bowls, lopsided mugs and other deformed pottery! Sorry, glass blown by gorillas no longer available. Catalog printed by orangutans $84. Circle No. 318

TRANSVESTITE SCUBA SUPPLIES

As seen on Donahuel Dainty wetsuits, masks, air tanks and flippers for the underwater cross-dresser. Also, stylish matching rubber pumps for when you surface! Deep sea diving has never been so effeminate! Full color, giant-sized catalog $16. Circle No. 918

USELESS MINIATURE SCARVES

These handcrafted gems are factory inspected to insure they will not go around even the smallest neck! Bland and/or tasteless patterns guarantee they have no decorative value and make poor conversation pieces. 100% synthetic itchy fabric is not strong enough to withstand use as handkerchief. Millions of these are given as Christmas gifts every year! Useless catalog $29. Circle No. 837

THE CATALOG CATALOG

Here are hundreds more catalogs you can send us money for (after you send us money for this catalog, that is!) IT'S ALL HERE! The Lard's End Catalog, Infant Juggling Supplies, Jello Mail, George Wendt Products, Handcarved Hams, Exploding Office Supplies, Poorly Drawn Owls and much more! A bonanza for the helpless catalog junkie! Catalog $267. Circle No. 827

CAPTAIN SCUDDY'S INCORRECT MAPS AND GLOBES

Not a gag! These are authentic imitations of the actual maps and navigational charts that kept the legendary Captain Scuddy lost at sea for 17½ years. Plot a direct course from England to France that takes you through Bolivia, Chad and Fargo, North Dakota! Over 100 maps to choose from. Also available: outdated bus and train schedules from 61 countries, erroneous airline seating diagrams and official Captain Scuddy sailor hats. Official Scudman's catalog $8. Circle No. 536

SAWDUST SHEP OF OMAHA'S UNINSPECTED BEEF BY MAIL!

Loin! Shoulder! Flank! Why let Uncle Sam meddle with your meat? Public Health inspectors will never see the inside of his slaughterhouse—that's the Sawdust Shep guarantee! You save on every cut because the overhead associated with maintaining sanitary conditions and healthy livestock is virtually eliminated! Save on shipping, too, as Shep does not use insulated or refrigerated containers and sends all orders 4th class! An eating sensation you won't believe! Illustrated catalog $17. Circle No. 310

Captain Kook! The Superintendent of Planet Omega reports a meteor shower! What should he do?

Tell him to put on his rubbers!

Explorer Woodhull on Asteroid 97-A says his temperature is up to 750 degrees! What do you recommend?

Two aspirins—plenty of liquids—and call me in the morning!

Captain, a space ship just zoomed by on the Visagraph! It appeared to be lost, and I could have sworn I saw June Lockhart at the window!

Lost in space? Impossible! Not on this show! Not on—

STAR BLECH

WRITER DICK DEBARTOLO ARTIST MORT DRUCKER

"THESE ARE THE VOYAGES OF THE STAR-SHIP 'BOOBY-PRIZE'! ITS MISSION, TO EXPLORE STRANGE NEW WORLDS, TO SEEK OUT NEW LIFE, AND TO BOLDLY GO WHERE NO MAN HAS EVER GONE BEFORE!"

What say we beam down to that place where no man has gone before...
"THE PLANET PHI EPSILON NUDEST COLONY FOR WOMEN"?

That's not what I had in mind when I suggested that we explore some "heavenly bodies", Mr. Spock!

Message from Rama IV, sir! You haven't forgotten them, have you?

Of course not! I remember Rama!

Calling Rama IV! Calling Rama IV! It must be something serious! I'm getting no return signal from them!

Er—try your other arm, Sir! You're talking into your wristwatch! The odds are five to one that they'll never hear you through THAT!

Oh, yeah? Well the odds are ten to one that you're gonna get a belt in Rama IV if you don't stop acting like an intelligent DONKEY!

This is the Star Ship "Booby-Prize" ... calling Rama IV ...

This is Rama IV! We need help immediately! We're suffering from landslides, earthquakes, poisoned air, and...

I'm not sure if I'm talking to Rama IV or The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce!

We'd better beam down and have a look! If you're coming with me, Mr. Spock, you'd better step into this "Descanner"! You're not turning chicken, are you, Mr. Spock?

Sir, I—

No, sir— but you're standing in the Prime Beam! THAT'S the "Descanner"!

Er... yes! I know! I was just going to phone ahead! You know how awkward it could be—dropping in on a planet, unexpectedly!

The year century we've learned to live ours! © 1962 2022

... and if we then beamed him down to his healthy people, he could warn them of the coming catastrophe! They could leave the planet and re-settle elsewhere! We could change their future!!

Are you finished?
Yes!
You're crazy!

That's what your MIND says! What does your HEART say?

Pit-a-pat!
Pit-a-pat!
Pit-a-pat—like every body else's!

All right! We'll give it a try! Emergency stations, everyone!

In the bathroom?
I don't believe my ears!

I don't believe your ears, either, Mr. Spook!

Take over, Mr. Spook!
If you need me, I'll be in the bathroom!

This is going to be a tricky maneuver, crew, so pay attention! Okay—reduce the atomic flow—increase the retro power—decrease the decibel level—accentuate the positive—eliminate the negative—clear the decks—light the lights—we've got nothing to hit but the heights . . .

It's working, Captain! We're going back in time! We're back a week, already! Your clothes—that just came back from the laundry! See—they're dirty and stained again!

And Flob is getting younger! But—phew! he's not getting any cleaner!

We're approaching the time when all was well on your planet, Flob, so get ready to "De-Scan" and go back to your people!

Captain, I can't find enough words to thank you!

Do you think maybe you can find a little cash?

Into the Descanner, Flob! This is your departure point!

ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED IN MAD #115, DEC 1967

Well, he's gone—and we've saved another civilization from doom!

You could've given him a few more seconds to go through his wallet!

Captain! I can't pull the ship out of its reverse orbit! The handle's stuck!

Oops! Now it's just broken!

We'll, don't panic! Do you hear me? DON'T PANIC... #$%&*!@!! I WILL NOT TOLERATE PANIC!

We're doomed, Captain! We're going to travel back in time and crash in the Pre-Historic Ages . . . when Man was savage and bloodthirsty and cruel!

You mean . . .
Yes—we're headed for 1967!!

ALFRED AND OMEGA

WRITER JORDAN PEELE ARTIST RICHARD WILLIAMS

A key moment in NOPE features a fictional MAD Magazine cover. It's seen framed on a hidden door just before the audience hears an unsettling story told by Steven Yeun's character, Jupe. We commissioned the artwork from Richard Williams, one of the prominent MAD cover artists in the 1990s. It parodies the tragic incident surrounding "Gordy's Home," an in-universe sitcom from 1997 in which a chimp attacked his co-stars: the actors playing the family. On the cover, Alfred is made to look like the rampaging chimp, Gordy. This fictional artifact is indeed a loaded object: heavy and seeping with menace. I don't know whether the real magazine ever "went too far" for a gag. It was such a well-calibrated edge. So perfectly tuned. For me, the anxiety this fake cover exudes was worth bottling. The fear of toxic attention is wild and powerful. It's a moment the audience knows they are on the precipice of seeing something they're not supposed to see. A thing of shame.

MAD was formative. I remember early on finding Alfred E. Neuman's expression of vague mischief to be menacing. That taunting glazed-over grin. There was a call to mischief in this Neuman horror moment I couldn't turn down. Despite being consistently perched just beneath the pornography section of newsstands, Neuman's wicked smile was far more captivating than any other imagery I could "steal a glance of." He's a horror show. A master class in dumb and ugly. Both eyes vacant and still so savagely dialed into something? To what? Ew. To me? A tell-tale heart, of sorts, it's like he knew my secrets. So yeah, there's a dread there. It was clear that nothing was sacred to this young man... A mask of a hundred blasphemies.

My mother, a lover of comedy, enthusiastically bought me my first MAD issue at age nine. That didn't stop me from feeling like a rebellious badass. Once it was in my possession, MAD was a racy secret again.

Inside those pages, the content was densely packed: The Lighter Side of..., Spy vs. Spy, Don Martin, and, most importantly, the signature "fold-in" on the back page. In many ways, a perfect film works like one of those things. (For what it's worth, we conceptually referenced this page when discussing the unfolding creature, Jean Jacket, at the end of NOPE.) MAD Magazine walks the tightrope of irreverence with incredible skill. This was and is intoxicating and I've been attempting to do the same since. What started as a career in lighter comedy has evolved into something a bit darker, but for me it's all connected.

But to be able to achieve issue after issue of such tremendous satire, Alfred E. Neuman is an incredible editor for that.

It has been said that when two people live together, they eventually start to look alike. It follows, then, that when people live with dogs, they eventually start to look like their dogs. If this isn't clear to you (and there's no reason why it should be!), then take a look at these . . .

*Poodles live a life of ease
Without a single trace of fleas,
They sport the latest collar fashions
And only eat imported rations,

They take great pains to be well-groomed,
Only some rich flashy dude'll
Satisfy the pampered Poodle.*

It's been said Dick DeBartolo is the writer who spent the longest time at MAD. Could be. In the mid-'90s MAD moved from 485 MADison Avenue to Warner Bros. at 1700 Broadway, and Dick was accidentally locked in the stockroom that final eve. But by the following Thursday, he was missed and someone went to get him. Surprisingly, Dick was not angry. Nor was he conscious when he was found. Yes, there was an ambulance, doctors, and a near-death experience for him, but that's a funny story for another time! Right now... it's time for...

MADICAL HISTORY TOUR

WRITER DICK DEBARTOLO
ARTIST SUZY SPLAB

Step aboard the What Me Worry II, Dick's 50-foot house boat on the Hudson River. It was the scene of many MAD New Year's Eve parties. Admission was free, but you HAD to be part of the evening's entertainment!

Bill did magic. At one show he made a dog disappear. Then he made a squirrel have babies and five pounds of potato salad disappear. Thank God he wasn't a big fan of potatos; there wouldn't be anything left to eat if he had munch on!

Chris Gitter, host of Entertainment, is like food. If familiar, you won't notice it; if strange, it'll appear in the Follies, the band, the gold shisha, the trash, and the costumes. It was hard to know what to expect.

Anna Gabres (yep, she has the same name as the food) is familiar, yet never seems so strange! Because of the wig, the beads, the gold shisha, the trash, and the costumes. It was hard to know who she was up on the roof, and it was ro-

Woo-hoo! Another political "Punch and Judy" appearance. George and Debbie Woodbridge did a wild little fighting act that turned out to be more like "Punch and Judy"!

By all the power vested in him by millions of novelty nov, Captain John Flack performed, wedding ceremony of ova. (Well, at least.) Chris Gitter, MAD ad model, and Franckie Paus had the least of two party. Kach-ahng!

Mike, the man with the guitar at every New Year's Eve show. Now, was a gifted musician, somebody, someone gave him that guitar as a gift. Mike didn't actually play, he plucked. And when someone asked what he was doing, he just plucked music when he wanted to.

More MAD madness!

Even though we were on the 185 MADhead boat, there were still some other boat owners around. Charlie, App, and Bart—just to name a few. Were you, they had to share their stuff!

I was entitled to my very own space. It might not look like I have a lot of room, but I also had a smaller trash can for my east and esp, business cards, and frames photo.

Not wanting to make yet another Alfred E. Neuman tooth, we bought new, both in fashion and personality as taste. However, the Alfred E. Neuman underwear we never offered for sale. Something about having a hole in it where Alfred's missing tooth was made it a bit too crasy!

After dropping anchor in the harbor, the crew went ashore to the Hudson Riverfront. Liberty and I took a walk in Lady Liberty's crown. Fortunately, it was very light at night, and we could see our reflections in her lanterns.

MAD REMEMBERS PAUL COKER JR.

1929-2022

The world keeps taking the wrong Idiots. The MAD world recently lost one of the best and most unsung members of its usual Gang of Idiots. Paul Coker Jr. A mainstay at the magazine since his arrival in MAD #60 in 1961, Coker appeared in over 372, issues making him among the most prolific MAD contributors of all time.

A master of facial expressions and a deceptively simple and loose drawing style, Coker's art is instantly recognizable on recurring features like "MAD Beasties," "The Sights and Sounds of the U.S.A., and the feature that best did play his unique gift for combining the charming with the grotesque (and our personal favorite), "Horrifying Clichés."

Though not a household name, there probably isn't a home in the United States that hasn't been charmed by Coker's work in some way. He began his career producing Hallmark greeting cards in the 1950s (even providing some "Honest Greeting Cards" later here at MAD). He also worked in advertising and has been featured in numerous other publications, books, and syndicated newspaper strips. But Coker's art style may have reached its widest audience with his work as production and character designer with the animation company Rankin/Bass where he lent his signature look to a long list of perennial holiday classics like Frosty the Snowman and The Year Without a Santa Claus.

But if you are a current or former (shame on you!) MAD subscriber, odds are that a subscription ad in our magazine that you answered was illustrated by Paul Coker, our chief artist on those ads for years. So, Paul Coker may have been the one that actually brought us together. Let us celebrate his legacy and talent together by enjoying the visual joy in some of his whimsical artwork created during his almost six decades with MAD.

WHICH DECADE

MAD MAGAZINE?

HOLY WASTE OF PAPER! IT'S A 70TH ANNIVERSARY SUPER DUPER SPECIAL DOUBLE JUMBO MAD FOLD-IN

It's hard to believe that there's really been seven decades of MAD Magazine. It feels more like six, right? Six and a half, maybe. Nevertheless, it seems like a milestone worth celebrating—can I get a "HOOHAI"?

THAT'S ONLY 10 DOG YEARS!

This special issue called for a special fold-in, but we misplaced it, so we ran with this one. You should have seen the other one, though—WOW! To see the answer to this age-old question, fold page in as shown at right.

AFTER 70 LONG YEARS, WE CAN SAFELY SAY
WHO HAS SET THE STANDARD FOR MAD. SOME HAVE SAID
IT WAS THE ERA THAT YOU STARTED READING IT, HOWEVER ANY GOON SHOULD KNOW THIS—OR HAVEN'T YOU HEARD?

ECSTATIC FANS OF MAD ALWAYS HAVE SO MUCH
TO SAY ABOUT THIS TOPIC. NOW THAT WE MIX
SEVERAL ERAS OF MAD INTO ONE, THERE'S PLENTY OF FAN MAIL SAYING WHICH ONE IS THE BEST.

A MAD AD PARODY

There's always need for Fool-Aid. The hideous grin on the pitcher tells you it's indispensable. Warm weather brings out hordes of enterprising kids who set up soft drink stands in every neighborhood. The only trouble is: you can't be sure what the little monsters use to make the stuff. So be prepared! Always carry Fool-Aid — the instant antidote for poisons taken internally.

DIGITAL EDITION

BONUS MATERIAL!

Keeping with the aging iconic mascot theme we couldn't think of a better way to celebrate MAD's 70th than to poke fun at a 94 year-old, pants wearing, talking mouse, in "Mickey Rodent"!
From issue #19, January 1955.

Speaking of dirty rats, enjoy Al Jaffee's the first full color Fold-in, a mischevious masterpiece that mocks the mob! Published in MAD #119, June 1968.

ANIMATION DEPT.: HERE IS A THOUGHT! WHO AMONGST YOU HAVE SEEN THE SIGHT OF MAN TURNED BEAST? A HAPLESS FEW, WE TRUST!... AND YET... THOUGH WE ARE REPELLED AT THE SIGHT OF MAN TURNED BEAST... WE REVEL TO SEE BEAST TURNED MAN! WHEN YOU PASS ALONG THIS THOUGHT... REMEMBER YOU SAW IT IN MAD!... AND NOW, OUR STORY...

WALT DIZZY

WHAT?... ONE OF THE FEW TIMES I MANAGED TO WEAR MY PANTS AND SOMEBODY STOLE THEM?... I DON'T LIKE THE LOOKS OF THIS!

LOOK!... FOOTPRINTS OF A PEG-LEG!... IT MUST BE MY OLD ARCH ENEMY... PEG-LEG POOP WHO STOLE OUR CLOTHES!... LET'S FOLLOW THE TRACKS!

LOOK!... THEY GO STRAIGHT AHEAD THROUGH THE TREES!... COME ON!

I DON'T LIKE THE LOOKS OF THIS!... IT'S GETTING DARK AND I DON'T LIKE THE STYLE THIS SCENERY IS GETTING!... HAH!... LOOK AT THAT SIGNATURE! IT'S NOT WALT DIZZY'S STYLE. ... I KNEW THE STYLE OF THIS DRAWING WAS DIFFERENT!

NOW I'VE GOT YOU WHERE I WANT YOU, DARNOLD DUCK! PEG-LEG POOP DIDN'T TAKE YOUR CLOTHES! I DID! IT WAS ALL PART OF MY PLAN TO GET YOU HERE!... FOR YEARS I'VE BEEN PLANNING THIS!

...FOR YEARS I'VE WATCHED YOU PUSHING YOUR WAY INTO MY ACT!... FOR YEARS I'VE WATCHED HOW YOU'VE COME!... YOU AND YOUR BLASTED RELATIVES... THEM THREE LITTLE NOODNIK DUCKS!... I'VE SEEN YOU SLOWLY HUSTLING ME OUT OF THE PICTURE!... WELL I'M PUSHING YOU OUT, HERE AND NOW!

YOU THINK YOU CAN SHUT ME OUT WITH A GATE... WITHOUT MY CLOTHES?... I'LL GET BACK, BOY! I'LL GET BACK, SHVIEHNHUNT... I MEAN SHVEINMOUSE!
